Receiving Communion

Communion at St. James is normally through intinction and is administered on the tongue while kneeling (signal by touching your chin if you would like to receive in the form of bread only). However, the Church also permits you to receive in the hand, standing, or kneeling. If you are not properly prepared to receive communion or are not Catholic (see back of this sheet), you may come forward during communion and cross your arms to receive a blessing.

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY

STJAMESCC.ORG

St. James is a Roman Catholic mission of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, a diocesan like structure established by the Vatican in 2012 which is becoming known for bringing unity among Christians fervent preaching the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, the evangelizing power of poetically beautiful and reverent liturgy, and bringing together a dedicated community of believers. Though originally established in response to Anglicans wanting to come into the Church with their liturgical and pastoral traditions, it is now composed of Catholics of all backgrounds and has been thriving and has established over forty missions and parishes and counting throughout North America. The Ordinariate is led by Bishop Steven J. Lopes, who was appointed by Pope Francis in 2015. St. James has been in Jacksonville since 2019. Thank you for being here today. Please join us afterwards to socialize with coffee and refreshments.

HAVE A MASS CELEBRATED FOR SOMEONE YOU LOVE

This is one of the greatest gifts that you can provide for someone in need: a family member, a friend, or a deceased loved one. To do so, please complete a Mass Intention envelope or go to StJamesCC.org/giving. A Mass offering is usually at least $10, though this can be waved based on financial need. St. John Paul II emphasized the graces that come when a Mass is offered. "The Church believes that she will be heard, for she prays in union with Christ her Head and Spouse, who takes up this plea of His Bride and joins it to His own redemptive sacrifice."

MOST BALANCED CATHOLIC NEWS SOURCE: CRUXNOW.COM

To avoid divisive reporting, Father recommends CruxNow.com as the most centrist reporting of Church happenings he's found. It is run by John Allen, an American that lives in Italy and has a mission of helping Americans understand what is going on in the Vatican and the larger Catholic Church. He is a person who strives for accurate, well researched, and intelligent reporting. Father especially likes John's Last Week in the Church show and podcast. Crux is imperfect, but good, honest, reporting.

DO YOU HAVE PLANS FOR YOUR IRA? USE YOUR QCD OR RMD TO:

Create a fund for the development or ongoing expenses of St. James. You could memorialize a loved one with a named fund. Thank you for keeping St. James and the Ordinariate in mind as you are putting your finances in order during these last months of the year.

AM I ALLOWED TO PARTAKE OF HOLY COMMUNION?

CATHOLICS

All Catholics who are not conscious of grave sin and who have fasted for at least an hour, are welcome to receive communion. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession.

FELLOW CHRISTIANS

We welcome you to the celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion.

NON-CHRISTIANS

We also welcome those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.
