SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER | APRIL 7, 2024

THE OCTAVE DAY OF EASTER BEING DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY - A NOTE FROM FATHER MAYER

We are excited that you have chosen to experience and learn about St. James, a Roman Catholic mission of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter, a diocesan like structure established by the Vatican in 2012. This diocese originated in response to Anglicans wanting to come into the Church with their liturgical and pastoral traditions. However, it is now composed of Catholics of all backgrounds and has been thriving and has established over forty missions and parishes and counting throughout North America. The Ordinariate is led by Bishop Steven J. Lopes, who was appointed by Pope Francis in 2015. St. James has been in Jacksonville since 2019. Thank you for being here today. Please join us afterwards to socialize with coffee and refreshments.

HOW TO OBTAIN GOD'S MERCY: A DAY ESPECIALLY FOR THOSE RETURNING TO THE CHURCH

Today, Divine Mercy Sunday is a day when Jesus longs to immerse sinners in the abyss of his mercy. The Church even provides a plenary indulgence which removes the extremely painful, purification that is needed after death prior to entrance into heaven (1 Cor 3). To obtain this indulgence: (1) go to Confession within twenty days of (2) receiving Jesus in Holy Communion on April 7, 2023, (3) pray for Pope Francis intentions, (4) be detached from the affection for sin, even venial (smaller) sins, and (5) take part in the prayers and devotions held in honour of Divine Mercy in any church or chapel. We will be praying together the Divine Mercy Chaplet here at Saint James directly following Mass.

AM I ALLOWED TO PARTAKE OF HOLY COMMUNION?

CATHOLICS

All Catholics who are not conscious of grave sin and who have fasted for at least an hour, are welcome to receive communion. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession.

FELLOW CHRISTIANS

We welcome you to the celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion.

NON-CHRISTIANS

We also welcome those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.
